

Brad Bolte, Law Enforcement Officer, US Forest Service

Brad is a Forest Service Law Enforcement Officer stationed in the Livingston area. His primary patrol areas include: the west side of the Crazy Mountains, the east and west side of Paradise Valley, and Yankee Jim Canyon down to the Yellowstone National Park boundary, near Gardiner. He is a patrol Officer, but has also been detailed as a Special Agent working felony level investigations. Brad is a 4th generation Montanan that grew up hunting, fishing, and exploring Montana's backcountry.